PROSPECTUS.

This company owns by warranty title nearly fourteen thousand acres of mineral lands, situated in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockingham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan Rivers, in North Carolinia, which abound in plentiful deposits of coal, copper, iron, salt, and, there is every reason to believe from general and surface indications, petroleum or coal oil.

The services of two practical and efficient men, experienced in boring for oil, and stimulated by a long course of success in Venango county, Pennsylvania, were secured by the company several months since and they are now on the lands, with the requisite force, tools, steam engine and machinery, boring a well with very flattering prospects of success. The organization of this company effected some time since has now been perfected in legal form, by act of incorporation, with a capital of $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each.

By reference to the valuable and laborious reports of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, and Commodore Wilkes, U. S. Navy, every one interested will be enabled to judge of the value of the large area of territory secured by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Co.

It is well known that a superior article of bituminous coal is now being mined in the Deep river coal region, where a portion of the lands are situated, and this company owns property known to be equal if not superior to any on which shafts have been sunk. Copper, iron and salt also abound, and the attention of capitalists has already been directed to this section on account of its value for the above minerals.

Below are given a few extracts from the journals showing that there is no good reason why there should not be as large quantities of oil in the "Old North State" as in other States.

"Oil has been struck in Overton county, Tennessee, on the north line of that State, about midway from its eastern border, eighteen miles from the Cumberland mountains.—Christian (Richmond) Observer.

OIL WELLS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Parkersburg Times gives an astonishing statement of the yield of wells in the region thereabout, consisting of Wood, Wirt, Ritchie and other counties, viz: Burning Springs, 2,500 barrels per day; White Oak, 1,500; Lick Run, 300; Horse Neck, 150; and of the several wells on Hughes river, 6,000 barrels per day. The quality is said to be remarkably fine. The Times considers the oil of West Virginia the best yet discovered.

THE OIL EXCITEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—The oil excitement in Clark county is still high. Some eight or ten derricks are up and at work. The deepest well is only 325 feet, with a fair yield of oil. Some of the other wells have struck oil and gas at from 70 to 100 feet.—Much time and money will be spent this summer in the thorough development of the oil resources of Clark county. Men of capital and experience seem confident that oil will be found in large quantities, and are willing to test their faith by a free expenditure in developing the lands. The first company who bored on the land of Hon. T. R. Young, are now engaged in trying to raise the auger which was lost last fall. The Eastern Illinois Company will begin work in a few days twelve miles southwest of the first well. The prospect in that locality is good.—Chicago Tribune.

It is known that after a few months boring in the vicinity of Lynchburg, a large vein of oil was struck and a productive well is now in successful operation. This is on the same line with, and about 80 miles from, the company's first well on Dan River, where the indications both general and particular are similar.

In order to have sufficient means to develop this valuable property in such a manner as to insure success, the Directors have authorized 10,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold to raise a working capital, and subscriptions for that number or any part thereof will be received.

An uncommonly favorable opportunity for investment is thus afforded, as those who choose to buy stock under this offer will have the advantage of an equal footing with the original corporators in an enterprise which, after the example of the immense profits realized in those of a similar character in other States, though in many respects on less favorable conditions than this, (compare the extent, cheapness and fee simple title of the basis of operations here offered gives reasonable assurance of the most lucrative results. In many instances in sections of less favorable oil localities, shares have advanced in a few days from $2 or $5 to $20 and even $50, and poor men who made small investments realized fortunes.

Further information may be had at the office of the company, one door north of the Court House, Greensboro, N. C., where books of subscription are now open.

By order of the Directors.

A. G. BRENIZER, Secretary.

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 3-3awtf

IMPORTANT SALE

IN WILSON NORTH CAROLINA

THE undersigned, having been duly appointed and empowered by the stockholders of

to make sale of that VALUABLE PROPERTY, including all the buildings, together with about Twelve and a fourth Acres of Land, will offer the same at public auction, on the 14th day of September next.

The Seminary is a large and commodious building, admirably arranged for school purposes, and contains a sufficient number of rooms to accommodate about TWO HUNDRED STUDENTS. The buildings are nearly new, having been erected in 1860, and are of every kind needed in a first class Seminary.

The Seminary is located on the Eastern boundary of the town of Wilson, below the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, and on an elevated spot of ground, well shaded, and having excellent wells of water. The proverbial healthiness of the town of Wilson, (it being the highest point on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad,) and the morality, intelligence and refinement of its citizens, make it one of the most desirable locations for a first class, Male or Female, Seminary in the State.

Of the 12¼ acres of land a sufficient quantity will be sold for school or other purposes, together with all the buildings formerly used by Seminary, and the balance of the land will be sold in lots, the size of which will be announced on the day of sale.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-fourth cash; on the balance a credit of six months will be given.

JOSHUA BARNES, President.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to war ant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point especially the Eastern portion of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated under the eye and supervision of its late President, R. K. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the State.

There is now a sufficiency of Building and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by R. K. Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

Saturday Evening, Sept. 1, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS. NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR, JONATHAN WORTH, OF RANDOLPH.

The Persecuted Union Men.

At a Radical meeting held at Deep River, Guilford County, some days ago, the following resolution was adopted, which embodies the stereotyped slander which has been reiterated by the Radical press and the Radical meetings, time and again, and which we have denied and challenged the proof of repeatedly:

Resolved, That should Congress find the obstacles to an early restoration insurmountable, we believe it should make provision for the protection of the Union men of the South, until order shall be fully restored.

This is "the milk in the cocoanut." These "loyal Unionists" care but little for the Union. The early settlement of the difficulties of the nation, they do not desire much, unless the settlement secures protection, i. e. absolution for their gross offences against the law, the disfranchisement of all other citizens, and the quiet possession of all the offices for the loyal Unionists.

Seriously, what do these men mean by protection for the Union men? Since the cessation of hostilities, have Union men been persecuted or mistreated, because they were Union men?—We dare them to name the man and furnish the evidence of it. No consistent Union man has been ignored or discountenanced, because of his Union principles, much less persecuted or maltreated. During the war, we have admitted, some of them, peaceable men, were unjustly and improperly treated. We have always regretted and opposed such a course. But since the war, we have not heard of an instance of persecution or bad treatment. The "persecution" has been all on the other side. Bad men, with malevolent feelings, aggravated and provoked hostility to them during the war. Some of them were perfectly lawless, and committed the most unheard of outrages against their unoffending neighbors. Now do these "loyal Unionists" mean, by protection, that these vandal scapegraces shall go unpunished? Do they mean to say, that lawless men, whether so-called or real Unionists, or Confederates, who were guilty of vile offences against the law and against their own people, shall go unpunished? We ask every man belonging to the "red strings," the "strait-sect," or the Radicals, who has any claim to respectability, whatever, if they are parties to so dishonorable a demand upon the government, that Union men shall be screened and protected in their meanness, lawlessness and villainy, while Confederates shall be punished severely? If so, every such man should be marked and every respectable man should scout him as unfit for intercourse with gentlemen.—We say that whoever he may be, Union man or former Confederate, that violates the law, let him be punished; but in all cases let the offence be mitigated by the circumstances.

But it is alleged that Union men are being persecuted, because, as Federal soldiers, they strictly executed the orders of their superiors. If there is a case like this in the State, which we seriously doubt, it is all wrong. No man, whether Federal or Confederate, should be punished for the execution of orders issued by proper superiors. And we would defend Union men acting under such orders, as we would Confederates.

"Guarantees are talked of. I think the time has come for the President of the United States, and for us who are associated with him, to ask guarantees on the other side. What guarantee have we that if Tennessee should humble herself in the dust, and North Carolina and South Carolina should "eat the leek," and if the Southern States should give up forty of their representatives, they would then be admitted? I do not see any guarantee for that. New terms may be insisted on every day."

The foregoing is an extract from the patriotic speech of Secretary Seward at the great New York banquet. It has the ring of the true metal. It presents the enquiry, which we have often propounded to our people, and which they would do well to ponder.

Already we have faithfully performed everything that was originally said to be all that was necessary to restoration. We were told that when that was accomplished, the doors of the Union, "on golden hinges," would swing wide open to receive us. We have been deluded,—grossly, infamously deceived.

If we should, to-morrw, "eat the leek" of the proposed Constitutional amendment, with its debasing conditions, crushing out our very life and subverting the character of the government as well, we have no assurance that we should be any nearer representation than we are to-day. The Radicals will not be satisfied with even that humiliation. Their cowardly and hyena-like instincts would impel them to fresh schemes of ruin and degradation. They would proceed to mutilate the corpse of constitutional liberty and of Southern manhood.

POWDER.—All the restrictions on the importation of arms and ammunition into the Southern States have been removed by an order dated 21st. inst. Now we can buy, without stint, the wherewithal to kill crows, squirrels, and the like; and so any one who wants powder can get ample supplies from any of the merchants who advertise in the Sentinel.—Sentinel.

Is that all you want with powder? Wait and see.—Standard.

"Wait and see"—what? Does the Standard mean to make a menace? Does it threaten civil war in this State, if the Radicals do not succeed in their oppressive and nefarious schemes? The tendency of its course is in that direction, evidently; but our people will put down Radicals and Radical sympathizers in North Carolina by the more safe and effective agency of the ballot-box.

"The Fire of Loyalty Burns."

The Washington Chronicle, Forney's paper, publishes the following letter, written from this city:

"RALEIGH, Aug. 25, 1866.

MY DEAR SIR:—Your last letter was duly received. Enclosed please find the proceedings of Union meetings recently held in this State. I send them thinking they may have escaped your notice. Other meetings have been and will be held, the proceedings of which will appear in the Standard.

"The storm of obloquy and denunciation, both social and political, now beating upon the devoted Union men of this State, is heavier than it was in 1860. It is regarded as worse to sympathise even with a "radical" than it was to urge the people, in 1860, to submit to Lincoln. But the true Union men are firm and undismayed. The fire of loyalty burns in their hearts, if with a smothered, yet with an undying flame. We are looking with the utmost interest to the pending Northern elections. We implore the true Unionists of the North to stand firm, as their triumph will be ours."

Mr. Holden's newspaper has been quite chary, of late, in its editorial endorsement of the Radical platform. The harmonious proceedings of the Philadelphia Convention, its programme and address, the unanimity and enthusiasm with which they have been received by the true conservative Union [illegible] of the country, have led him to be exceedingly cautious how he makes his steps. Though his record is unmistakable to all discerning men, yet we met a regular reader of the Standard, the other day, who seemed to be surprised, when he was assured that Mr. Holden endorsed the Howard Constitutional amendment, and urged the State Convention to adopt it before Congress did.

The above letter, however, shows that Mr. Holden is determined to keep up Forney's spirits in regard to North Carolina. It bears strong ear marks of being from his pen. Who else would know, but he, that the proceedings of Union meetings would "appear in the Standard?" And yet Mr. Holden has been very careful not to endorse, editorially, one of those meetings.

"The fire still burns." Yes, but it burns feebly—it flickers; it is unsteady, and, as to the true Unionism in it, very doubtful. In vain may men declare to the people of the South that they are Union men, when they assume that the Southern States are out of the Union, and should not be re-admitted, except upon the most humiliating and degrading terms, and at the will of the Radical party. In vain may they talk of loyalty, when they are ready, with the Radicals, to put forth their hands to destroy the great Charter of our Liberties, by amendments utterly subversive of the fundamental principles of that instrument. Mr. Holden and Mr. Forney are welcome to the little bits of Radical comfort they get from North Carolina. Some of the delegates will need a pilot to Philadelphia.

THE PRESIDENT, in all his addresses upon his tour, speaks with the confidence of one who is marching under the banners of assured victory. They breathe a bold defiance to his enemies and a faith in the patriotism and judgment of the people, that argue a conviction that he is master of the situation.

Few men have ever possessed, in so eminent a degree, the faculty of touching the right chords in the popular heart. This is doubtless the secret of his great success in life. Alluding to this, and kindred distinguishing characteristics of Mr. Johnson, the Hon. G. A. Henry, of Tennessee, thus spoke of him at the recent great ratification meeting in Memphis:

"I have some reason to know the man. We canvassed the State in 1853 for Governor of Tennessee. There is more resistance in him, than any man I ever encountered. The harder he was pressed, the higher he rose under the pressure, and it seemed to me the heavier he was loaded the lighter he ran. The greater was the obstacle I threw in his way, the more triumphantly did he clear it at a bound. His powers were never fully developed till we got down to our work "in dead earnest," in what the boys call a ground scuffle. He has beaten everybody he ever encountered. He beat my friend Hon. L. C. Haynes, of your city, for Congress, and I think you will agree that was no easy job to accomplish. He beat the Hon. M. P. Gentry for Governor, who had never been beaten before, and "great let me call him for he conquered me," and I predict such will be the fate of any Radical who opposes him. You know I never was his political friend. He was a Democrat and I a Whig. Oil and water were not more opposite than we, and yet, in the new order of things, I ardently desire the success of his administration, and if he should be the stanbard bearer of that great body of Conservative men who were drawn together lately in Philadelphia, by a patriotic determination to save the Constitution from violation, and the country from utter ruin, I for one will do "good yeoman service" in his cause, and will call upon all lovers of this country, whether Whig or Democrat, all of every party who would stay the wild wave of Radicalism, which is sweeping over the land, and carrying away before it every vestige of the Constitution, and every hope of the patriot, to rally around his banner and bear it to victory. The South owe him a debt of gratitude for the manly stand he has taken for us, and I feel confident all of every party will be prompt to pay it, who have the love of country in their hearts."

BUTLER, emulating the latest pronunciamento of that "glorious old patriot," Brownlow, announced to a meeting of sympathizers in Gloucester, Massachusetts, the other day, that "we will march once more, and woe be to them that oppose us." Considering how infinitesimal was the quantity of "woe" which Butler dealt out to anybody that "opposed" him in the war,—as witness Bethel, Bermuda Hundreds and Fort Fisher,—it is probably correct to suppose that he has an immense assortment of "woes," as well as Southern silver-spoons, safely "bottled up."

A Noble Utterance.

"I say this, and I repeat it here to-night—I do not want the Southern States to come back into this Union a degraded and debased people. (Loud cheers.) They are not fit to be a part of this great American family, if they are degraded and treated with ignominy and contempt. I want them, when they come back, to become a part of this great country, an honored portion of the American people. I want them to come back with all their manhood—then they are fit, and not without that, to be a part of these United States."—President Johnson in New York.

Things not to be Neglected.

We are a poor people,—a really needy people. The great change in the pecuniary condition of our people, perhaps no one man can begin to calculate. Yet, bad as our condition is, no one can tell what foresight, energy, skill and frugality can accomplish. God has left us, it the malice of the Radicals does not bring upon us greater ruin, in the natural resources of the soil, the mental and physical capacity of our people, and a character for courage and honesty, enough, which, if put into requisition, and persevered in, is ample to make North Carolina a great State. But in order to make us a great people, several things must not be neglected:

1. Our lands, and the mining and manufacturing resources, must be improved. Poverty is no excuse for the neglect of this improvment.—What has been done, may be done again. We have already said, in another article, that labor, skill and energy are money, and who can gainsay it? These we must apply, with unwonted zeal and enterprise, in the improvement of our lands, &c. Will we do it? Let every drone and idler in the State be put to work. If men or women will not work, neither should they eat. Labor, work, disgraces no one, injures no one. Idleness is a reproach and a crime, at a time like this.

2. The education of your children must not be neglected. The State is abundantly supplied with schools, except the regular public schools, and these should be revived as soon as possible. Don't say you are not able to educate your children. It must be done. Let our men abstain from intoxicating drinks, and tobacco, and all other unnecessary expenses, if need be, in order to educate their children. Let the women of the South continue to be frugal and abstain from needless dress or expensive equipage, that the country may be improved and the youth educated.

3. The pecuniary necessities of Christianity must be met. Poverty is no excuse for the neglect of the education of the children or the failure to support Christianity. If we are anything, or have anything, as a people, we owe it all to Christianity. Better not live at all than live without the Gospel and the institutions of Religion. Indeed, without them civilization would speedily disappear from the land. Infidelity would make the land a barren waste, only fit for the barbarian and the heathen.

4. Our character for personal honor, and honesty as a people, must not be neglected. These must be maintained at any sacrifice. North Carolinians have nobly borne the reputation of being an honorable and an honest people. Shall we sacrifice this reputation? Shall anything, poverty, or nakedness, or sword, drive us to dishonor and shame? We hope not.

5. Encourage your own newspaper press. They must supply the reading of the masses. Every family should take a newspaper, and every man of business should take a daily. Every observing man will see enough in a newspaper, if he profits by its suggestions and the items of information given, to save ten times the value of the subscription in a year. Don't neglect your newspapers, because money is scarce.

IN HIS great New York speech President Johnson defiens, in "unmistakable" language what he means by loyalty. Vindicating the character of the late Philadelphia Convention, he said:

"But these men, (the Southern people) notwithstanding they may profess now loyalty and devotion to the union of the states, are said to be pretenders, not to be believed. What better evidence can you have of devotion to the government than profession and action? Who dare, at this day of political freedom, to set up an inquisition, and come into the human bosom to inquire what are the sentiments there?"

Meeting of the Stockholders of the Western N. C. Railroad.

MORGANTON, Aug. 31., 1866.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Western North Carolina Railroad was held here yesterday, N. W. Woodfin, Esq., in the chair.

The examining committee's report shows that, whilst in September last, the road was in a very dilapidated condition, it has been greatly improved. A year ago, the road bed was badly washed, the cross-ties decayed, shelters burnt, engines and cars worn and broken, all the consequences of destructive war. Now the road bed is in fair order,—14,000 ties laid down—four good engines in running order, box cars and passenger cars, first and second class, sufficient for present freight and travel. Culverts have been repaired, depots, car-building shops and shelters fitted up, and, altogether, whilst much remains to be done, much has been done, and the prospects are encouraging.

This Company has found, by experiment, that, in car-building, they have saved money over buying at the North, and more durable cars have been secured to the road.

It is too much the case with our people, that nothing looks well unless it have a Northern stamp on it. The more this idea is abandoned the more prosperity we may look for at home.

Steps were taken to endeavor to carry the road through to the Tennessee line, with a view to meet the Tennessee extension to our State, and thereby connect with the Virginia and Tennessee route; also to complete a road to Ducktown, in Cherokee County.

It was stated that Ducktown furnishes more freight for Chattanooga, than now goes over this road.

The finances of the road are in a poor condition, of course. $15,000 were borrowed a few months ago, from private parties, and $20,000 from the Southern Express Co. Goods have also been purchased from the Government sales, on a credit. These measures have enabled the Company to keep up the road to this time.

Dr. Foard, of Newbern, projected the resumption of the Western extension, and also held out a handsome project relative to a line of ships with foreign ports.

The offices of the President and Superintendent have been consolidated, and Col. S. McD. Tate was elected to fill both.

The following are the directors:

FOR THE STATE.

F. E. Shober, of Rowan Co.
Dr. A. M. Powell, of Catawba.
A. C. Cowles, of Yadkin.
G. F. Davidson, of Iredell.
W. Murphy, of Rowan.
Col. Tate, of Burke.
A. M. Erwin, of Burke.
Hon. A. S. Merrimon, of Buncombe.

FOR THE STOCKHOLDERS:

Z. B. Vance, Mecklenburg County.
Hugh Reynolds, Iredell.
Dr. McDowell, Burke.
N. Woodfin, Buncombe.

The meeting was quite a spirited one, and the attendance full.

The State Agricultural Society.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—While everybody is so deeply concerned for the reconstruction of the Union, it is somewhat remarkable that so little attention is given to a subject of equal, if not of paramount importance,—the reconstruction of the State in her social and industrial interests. The impression seems to prevail to a great extent that everything depends upon the admission of our Senators and Representatives to the Federal Congress, and national politics, consequently, absorb the popular attention, to the exclusion of domestic and local affairs.—Now, while it is conceded that representation in the national government is a very sacred and valuable right, yet there are interests nearer home of even greater practical importance to every citizen of the State,—interests so intimately connected with our prosperity as individuals and as a people, that they are really indispensable to it. The success of the President's policy, the admission of our Congressmen, and the restoration of our State to a position of perfect equality in the Union with all the other States, desirable as these things are, will not cure our worst ills,—they will not restore our lost fortunes, nor put into our pockets the money necessary to meet our wants. It is not a doctrine of sordid materialism, that the dearest interests of a people depend upon the development of their natural resources and the increase of their wealth. Money, or wealth, as a means, is a sine qua non: food and raiment for the body, education for the mind, cannot be procured without it. It is required for building and keeping up railroads and canals, for erecting churches and for the support of ministers and teachers.

A sage has said, "The greatest public benefactor is he that causes two blades of grass to grow, where only one grew before." It cannot be disputed that agriculture is our chief resource as a people,—and to this fact are we mainly indebted for the nobility of character for which, as a people, the South is distinguished. Whatever, then, may tend to the improvement of agriculture, has a just claim upon the attention and active support of every one among us. He cannot be wise or innocent who looks with careless indifference upon any measure or enterprise tending to the promotion of general prosperity. It is in this view, that the writer of this article has presumed to call attention to the subject of resuscitating the State Agricultural Society, and the revival, under its auspices, of the annual Fairs, which created such a wholesome interest in the popular mind before the war.

The industrial pursuits and interests of our impoverished section need every stimulus that can be applied to them. Nor let it be supposed that the necessities of the people are sufficient for this purpose: avarice is blind, and cannot see beyond a present temporary advantage, often obtained at the price of future permanent injury. Epecially in agriculture, will it not do to labor with reference merely to immediate gains, without regard to the future. The worn out old fields all around us attest the folly of such a policy. What we want is, that generous rivalry among the tillers of the soil, which the comparison of results at the fairs naturally inspires, that intelligent eclecticism in farming, which overcomes the obstinacy of ancient prejudice, and combines the elements of success drawn from various and numerous experiments. The system of annual Fairs is the most efficient agency for producing these results, that has yet been employed, and deserves to be perpetuated.

But there are many more benefits resulting from Fairs. It gives to the farmer and his family an opportunity for pleasant and profitable recreation, once a year, in a visit to the Capital, where they meet with a vast concourse of co-laborers and kindred spirits, have an opportunity of inspecting and procuring the latest improvements in agricultural machinery, and buying and selling superior stock and seeds; and they learn, by the most infallible tests, the extent of the State's resources, and the relative value of lands in the different sections. The advantages of these Fairs to mechanics are too obvious to be repeated. Lastly, the merchants and citizens of Raleigh must be blind, indeed, not to see and appreciate the benefits which must accrue to them, in the revival of Fairs; and, if they are wise, they will give no niggardly contributions towards defraying the necessary expense attending such revival.

And, now, Messrs. Editors, the ball having been started by a feeble hand, will not some more vigorous arm give it a push, and will not others gather around it, and, uniting their strength and wills, give it such velocity that it will not stop until the barriers of apathy are overcome, and Raleigh shall once more be enlivened and crowded by the visitors to the State Fair? So mote it be. TACITUS.

The Late Col. Jno. W. Cameron.

At a meeting of the members of the bar, and citizens of Moore county, held for the purpose of passing resolutions of respect to the memory of Jno. W. Cameron, dec'd, at Carthage, on the 24th. ult., being the week of Superior Court,

On motion, His Honor Judge Gilliam was called to the chair, and C. Dowd, Esq., was requested to act as Secretary.

The Committee on Resolutions, Messrs. M. Q. Waddell, B. J. Howze and C. Dowd, reported the following, which were unanimously adopted, after hearing appropriate speeches from Messrs. John Manning, Waddell, Howze, McKay, Col. Morrison, and others:

Resolved, That in the death of John Worthy Cameron, the profession of the Law has lost a learned counsellor and eloquent advocate; his friends and associates a generous, enlightened and genial companion; his native County of Moore one of her truest and most gitted sons; and the State of North Carolina a statesman, patriotic, conservative and of liberal and expanded views.

Resolved, That to his bereaved and afflicted family, we tender our most earnest sympathies.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Raleigh and Wilmington papers, a copy sent to the family and father of the deceased, and that His Honor, the presiding Judge, be requested to have them spread upon the minutes of this Court.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

ROBT. B. GILLIAM, Ch'm.

C. DOWD, Sec'y.

On the re-assembling of the Court, His Honor Judge Gilliam, in compliance with the last resolution, directed the clerk to spread the proceedings of this meeting upon the minute Docket.

Raleigh and Wilmington papers please copy.

A STRANGE DISCOVERY.—Some days since, in the removal of public property in the United States Quartermaster's Department storehouse on East Bay, two strange packages come to light, which, on examination, proved to be boxes containing the remains of two Federal soldiers, marked as follows: Private H. J. Hall, company B, 3d N. H. vols.; Private Albert S. Flint, company D, 4th N. H. vols. The former died on the 19th of July, and the latter on the 8th of August, 1863, and had been stowed away as merchandise for over a year.—Charleston Courier, 23d.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Examiner.]

WASHINGTON, Aug 30.

The President is carrying out his doctrine of "rotation" so thoroughly that, by October next, he will not leave a Radical dog in any responsible office. He sent a broom through West Virginia last Tuesday evening, sweeping out all the Radical office holders whose tenure is by Executive pleasure. From every part of the country we shall soon hear the Radical howl, as the rotation broom reaches it.

The Radical leaders and organs make light of it, and tell their decapitated friends to go to work and secure Radical triumph at the polls, promising that Johnson's rule shall be very short. In fact, all offices and all chances for plunder are already parceled out and promised to Radical adherents.

Judge Black speaks hopefully of Pennsylvania. He thinks still that Clymer will be chosen Governor. This would have a most beneficial effect on the subsequent elections in other States.

But the Radicals mean to contest Pennsylvania with all the means, foul and fair, that they can command. They will be supplied, to an unlimited extent, with money, and are now devising frauds as a necessary resort. They will attempt to exclude sixty thousand soldiers from the polls, on the pretext that they were deserters. They deserted the Radical cause.

I learn that the President will certainly remove the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Chandler, an active Radical, by the first of the month.

The President can do nothing that would tend more to conciliate the Democracy of the North than to remove Secretary Stanton. The Philadelphia Convention desired and expected the change. It will take place by or before October. The Secretary will have a chance, till then, of retiring, and perhaps upon a foreign mission.

The statement, which is authentic, that Mr. Stanton withheld from the President General Baird's dispatch of July 20th, giving notice of the expected trouble at New Orleans, and asking instructions, would alone, at this time, be a sufficient cause for his removal.

KAPPA.

The Campaign in Indiana---Governor Morton Stumping the State---Gov. Oglesby, of Illinois, Organizing Radical Secret Political Societies.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 29.

Notwithstanding the terribly afflicted condition of Gov. Morton, he is in a remarkably good condition for a paralytic, and is canvassing the State for the Radicals. His speeches are able and venomous, but do not carry the same weight as formerly.

Governor Oglesby, of Illinois, is also canvassing the State. He is obscene and abusive. His mission is to organize lodges of a new secret political order known as the Grand Army of the Republic. The Order is spreading rapidly, and it is feared will make serious trouble, if not bloodshed and revolution. It has all the objectionable features of the Sons of Liberty and Know-Nothings.

A counter organization has been talked of among the Democracy; but the more considerate of the leaders have discouraged the idea, having seen enough of secret political organizations.

The negroes, not to be out done, have organized a secret military association, and are drilling nightly. They number between five and six hundred able-bodied men in this city, and, encouraged by Radicals, mean mischief.—Similar colored associations, all possessing muskets, are being formed over the State. Altogether, matters look favorable for interference in elections, and bloodshed.

George H. Pendleton and Senator Hendricks addressed a meeting of twenty thousand citizens at Edinburgh, Johnson county, this afternoon. Mr. Pendleton spoke about two hours and a half. The meeting is said to have been the largest ever held in Southern Indiana.

SOUTHERN AND FEDERAL SOLDIERS.—B. C. Truman writes to the New York Times that a Federal soldier, not having money to pay his fare on the Boston and Providence railroad, the other day, was threatened with expulsion. A gentleman occupying a seat with me asked the soldier how much he lacked of the full amount, and he replied "one dollar," which the former immediately handed him. "Thank you, kindly," said the soldier; "but excuse me, sir, have you not been an officer in the army?" "Yes, sir," rejoined the gentleman, "I was an officer in the Confederate army." "I respect you, and shall never forget you," said the soldier. Subsequently I got into conversation with the ex-Confederate, whom I found to be Captain T. S. Mackey, formerly chief engineer of the Trans-Mississippi army.

DIED,

Near Forestville, N. C., on Tuesday, the 28th. of August, 1866, after a painful illness of about twelve hours, MRS. ANNIE FERGUSON, wife of Mr. J. J. Ferguson, of Forestville, N. C., and daughter of Michael and Margaret Duffy, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Also, on the same day, MARY, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, aged only one short hour.

Thus, on the same day, were taken from us both mother and child. Mrs. Ferguson was in the 34th. year of her age, and had been a resident of North Carolina about eight years. In addition to a pleasing person, she possessed the graces of a well-cultivated mind, gentle manners, and amiable deportment, which together with her many noble virtues, drew around her and endeared her to numerous friends, whose deep sorrow and distress, at her sudden demise, evinced most truly the sincerity of their attachment. To know her, indeed, was to love her. She was a dutiful and affectionate wife, a kind and loving mother, a dearly cherished and esteemed friend and neighbor. She leaves an affectionate husband and four small children, to whom her loss is irreparable. Yet relatives and friends have the well-founded consolation of knowing that she has left this gloomy world for that bright realm above, where sickness and sorrow and partings are unknown.

"This world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh:
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.

Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years,
And all that life is love."

At Oxford, N. C., on the 23d. ult., Mrs. MARY R. POPE, wife of H. J. Pope, Esq., of Northampton county, and daughter of the late Col. Robert Ransom.

"The First of the Season."

LARGE

Opening of New Fall Goods,

With an extensive assortment of CARPETS, RUGS, DRUGGETTS AND GENERAL HOUSE-KEEPING GOODS, and an entirely new stock of the handsomest DRESS GOODS the market affords.

Ladies will find this the best opportunity to procure choice new styles of FALL DRESS GOODS, which I am now opening in great variety, such as splendid Eugenia and Empress Cloths, Crepes, Merinos, Goldanelia, richly embroidered—an entirely new things, rich, brilliant silk stripes on chene grounds: "Transconia A'Soie, effective Careaux, with rich Broches," "Lornetto, effective Satin Carreatux," on lasting finish grounds, very costly; "Rich Valentia, in plain chene," all new and desirable shades, psime qualities and beautiful designs, with rich Broches.

A magnificent assortment of

in all their new styles and combinations, at prices that will not fail to please. I would call special attention to my stock of the largest in Va., or North Carolina, embracing 20,000 yards, all bought at auction, and will be sold at prices far below any similar quality ever offered in this market. I have also just received over 10,000 yards of PANTALOON GOODS, in every variety of finish and quality, varying in price from 30c, to $3. This stock is the largest and most complete of the kind that I have ever offered, and will be constantly replenished during the season as the demand requires.

At a future day I will enumerate the different lines of Goods I usually keep. Suffice it to say, at present, that everything kept in any first-class Dry-Goods House can be found here, in every variety, at the lowest prices.

I would say to those in want of

that the greatest care has been taken in the selection of the best colors and finest fabrics, and they have but to be seen to be appreciated, so that those in want had better

I would also call the attention of the public to the celebrated Florence Lock Stitch Sewing Machine.

This Machine, being but recently introduced, is already gaining for itself a host of friends, as our daily sales testify. Its simplicity and

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Pulliam, Jones & Co. offer, at wholesale prices, a choice variety of fine soaps.

The same firm have on hand a large lot of rope and bagging.

THE REV. DR. SAMSON will preach in the Baptist Church to-morrow morning and night.

THE REV. DR. SAMSON'S Lecture on Palestine, in the Commons Hall, last evening, though not so numerously attended as we should have been pleased to have seen it, gave great pleasure to an intelligent and appreciative audience.—His sketch of the topography and geology of the country, its vegetable productions, animals, men, women and customs, was highly graphic and instructive, and threw new and interesting light upon much of the Bible narrative. We were surprised to gather from the Lecture, that the present Mohammedan possessors of the land keep up and perpetuate most of the habits and peculiarities of the Scriptural days and people,—demonstrating, incontestibly, that the conqueror can never extirpate the local traditio[illegible]d customs of a country.

Perhaps the greatest charm of Dr. Samson's mode of lecturing is that he brings vividly, and almost familiarly, before you, the scenes and incidents which he describes and which he has witnessed or participated in.

We trust that his Lecture for this evening, on Jerusalem,—which promises to be unusually attractive,—will be largely attended.

WE ACKNOWLEDGE the courtesy of an invitation to attend the inauguration of the Statue of Washington, at the Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, on the 10th. inst. The address on the occasion will be delivered by Ex Gov. Letcher.

WE ARE GRATIFIED to welcome the Hon. D. M. Barringer back again to our midst, after a temporarily suspended citizenship. Gen. Ruger having vacated his residence and left the City, Mr. Barringer's family will return to Raleigh, where they will be cordially greeted, in a few days.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—Mr. Brock West, a merchant in Kinston, and a brother of the late postmaster at that place, who committed suicide some days since, attempted self-destruction, by cutting his throat, on Thursday, but was prevented by his friends. The Newbern Commercial says that, in his frantic endeavors to free himself from their restraint, he nearly succeeded in strangling John H. Stevenson, Esq., the proprietor of the hotel, injuring him seriously.—Mr. West's mind is at times supposed to be affected, caused by a fracture of the skull from the explosion of a shell during the late war.

SALEM.—We are glad to see that a National Bank has been established at Salem in this State. This is the sixth National Bank established in North Carolina. The officers are as follows: Directors: P. A. Wilson, I. G. Lash, J. W. Hunter, R. L. Patterson and E. Belo. Israel G. Lash, Esq., is President, and W. A. Lemly, Esq., Cashier. Mr. Lash is one of the ablest financiers in the State.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.—We are gratified to learn that this excellent institution has commenced its Fall session with encouraging prospects. About sixty students are in attendance, and more are expected.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETIES.—We have heretofore urged upon the people in the several Counties, the necessity and utility of reviving the Agricultural Societies and the early re-organization of the State Agricultural Society. The benefit of these Associations was abundantly tested and proven before the war. If they were needed then, they are needed much more now. We are glad that our correspondent, "Tacitus," has called attention to the subject.

These Associations could not only be made the instruments of encouraging and promoting a laudable ambition and rivalry in the improvement of lands, seeding and cultivation, &c., but they could very greatly promote, and systematize to a great extent, the basis of free labor, upon some uniform and sound principle, which must be done before any system of improvement can be carried on successfully.—The sooner this is done the better.

We urge an immediate movement in every County. It will not do to sit down and repine at our hard lot, fold our hands together and say we can do nothing. We must go to work in good earnest on an improved scale. Money is scarce, but we have lands and other resources, and we have skill, and labor, and energy, if properly applied, and these are money. The war and our losses have taught us, or ought to have taught us, to live economically and frugally. The present poor bread and meat crop ought to make us more so. But our poverty is no excuse for the neglect of any thing that will improve our condition.

A white man and a negro got into a fight recently in Greenville, South Carolina. The negro struck the white man with a stick, and the white man stabbed him. Thereupon the negroes mustered in large numbers and threatened to burn the town, and did succeed in burning several stables and barns in the vicinity.

Two boys who went into the orchard of a Mr. Fink, near Winterset, Iowa, on Saturday last, for the purpose of eating a few apples, were fired upon by the humane and generous owner, and both severely wounded, having received from thirty to forty shots in their faces, breasts, and arms!

An order will be published by the Secretary of War, in a day or two, it is expected, directing the honorable muster out of service, on account of their services being no longer needed, of all the volunteer officers now in the army, including those on duty in the Freedman's Bureau and those doing provost marshals' duty in the civil and military departments.

GENERAL NEWS.

MASS RATIFICATION MEETING IN NEW YORK CITY.—At a meeting of delegates who attended the Philadelphia Convention, Messrs. Hiram Ketchum, ex-Recorder Talmadge, General Taylor, and Eli P. Norton were appointed a committee to make arrangements for a Union mass meeting in Union Square on the 17th of September, to ratify the action of the Philadelphia Convention.

The negroes are holding a protracted meeting at Taylor's farm, near Norfolk. The Old Dominion says:

On Sunday one of the agents of the Bureau visited the vicinity, and attended their meeting. He was very much struck with the religious display of the people, but exceedingly mortified at their corn crop. It was very slim, few and far between, and he advised them to pay some attention to creature comforts and the spare time to revivals.

DROPPED THE FIRM.—An ex-abolition clergyman having made a Southern tour writes to a Northern friend as follows:

"Society is in a dreadful condition. The slaves, now free, are the worst set of vagabonds that ever was known; lurking about, stealing and starving, dying and getting killed. After spending money enough fighting about them to pay for every one of them, and send them to Africa with a year's provision, and the loss of a million of lives, it is now worse for black and white than it was before the war commenced."

William T. Smithson, a banker of Washington, who was thrown into prison during the war for being in correspondence with the enemy, by order of Secretary Stanton, has instituted proceedings against the latter for damages because of irregular and unlawful proceedings, laying his damages at $30,000. The Cabinet discussed this matter, and the Attorney General was directed to defend Secretary Stanton in the case, the defence being principally based on the act of Congress indemnifying certain officers of the government for acts done in their official capacity for the suppression of the rebellion. The constitutionality of the law will therefore be tested in the coming trial.

Attorney-General Stanberry's opinion in reference to the constitutional power of the President to re-appoint persons whose nominations have been rejected by the Senate, will be delivered in a few days, but will not be submitted to the President until his return from his Western trip. It is a lengthy document, and will, it is understood, sustain the President in the exercise of that power.

At Danville, Hendricks county, Indiana, on Saturday last, the radicals attempted to break up a democratic meeting, when a riot occured, in which several men were wounded—several of them having since died. It was rumored that a force was organizing to besiege Danville. On Sunday night another force of Radicals surrounded the house of a democrat at Amoe, in the same county, and made threatening demonstrations against it.

Some twenty negroes recently insisted on riding in the ladies' car of an Ohio railroad. The brakesman refusing to admit them, they said, "they bought first-class tickets, and they were determined to have dar seats whar dey choosed to take 'em; peaceably if dey could, but forcibly if dey must," and attempted to force the door; a fight ensued, in which the darkies were worsted.

The Radicals are determined to have a great crowd at the Philadelphia Convention of the 3d. The city of Brooklyn alone has appointed more than a hundred delegates. The number of "Southern loyalists," of which the Convention is professedly to be composed, will hardly be enough to tally the hundreds of Northern delegates.

Major General D. E. Sickles, commanding the Department of the South, has not authorized the use of his name in connection with the Cleveland Convention.

The Boston Commonwealth has Wendell Phillips' assurance that he cannot consent, under any circumstances, to be a candidate for Congress, even to gratify his warm friends, the working-men.

EARLY FROST.—A distinctly visible white frost occurred in the neighborhood of Sperryville, Rappahannock county, on Sunday and Monday mornings last.—Alexandria Gazette, 28.

Petersburg is to have a magnificent tobacco exchange. The front is to be of iron and the building will contain 250,000 bricks.

A Memphis gentleman is seeking for bricklayers in Petersburg. He will pay expenses to Memphis, and $5 per day, or $6 per diem, the workmen paying their own expenses.

Those who are accustomed to speak of the gross ignorance of the Spanish people will be surprised to find that among a present population of 16,000,000 there are no less than 9,351 authors, 5,673 lawyers, and 47,312 students.

DETROIT, Aug. 28.—Taylor, the negro who committed the murder near Lansing, last week, was taken from the jail at Mason last night by a mob, and hung on a tree.

[If it had only been New Orleans instead of Detroit.]

The Rochester (New York) Union proposes that Fred. Douglass, the colored Republican stumper, be given the unanimous Radical nomination for Congress in that District.

The Montor (Penn.) Independent declares for General A. Logan for President in 1868.

A Newport Jenkins talks of a lady with "a canopy of hair as luxuriant as a Brazilian forest."

A carriage with a drunken driver and a pleasure party narrowly escaped going over Niagra Falls last week.

While the ofricers of the First National Bank of St. Louis were lunching the other day, ten thousand dollars were stolen from the counter.

Sim Jennings, a rich old miser, died recently in Ohio, leaving a fortune of two million dollars, which his heirs are already quarreling about.

GEORGE W. DEEMS, & CO.
Baltimore, Md.

August 4, 1866-1m

Col. R. A. ALSTON, who is endorsed by the Charleston Courier as a gentleman of untarnished name, has written a letter to the Metropolitan Record, in reference to the attempt of the Congressional Committee to connect Mr. Davis with the assassination of Mr. Lincoln. Col. Alston served with much distinction under the gallant John Morgan until the fall of that officer. He makes the following interesting statement:

"After the most diligent investigation, running through a period of more than twelve months, and suborning witnesses who, for the honor of humanity, be it said, recanted at the last moment and confessed their dark crime, what does the (committee's) whole testimony amount to?

First, that Mr. Davis, during the progress of a long and terrible war, conducted on the part of our enemies with a barbarous cruelty unknown to modern times, received a few letters from a few individuals requesting permission to offer themselves as instruments to rid their country of the men who were regarded as the wicked authors of our sufferings. These letters are paraded before the public—one from C. L. O. Dekalb, another from J. S. Paramere, and another from Lieutenant Waldemar Alston, requesting his permission. The two first are unknown to me; but Lieutenant Alston was an officer under my command at one time—an unassuming and intelligent youth, about nineteen years of age, who had witnessed enough cruelty at the hands of the enemy to turn his heart into bitterness and gall. In none of these cases was the permission sought granted; and the committee were careful to suppress those cases where it was not only refused, but rejected with indignant scorn, as was always the case when these kind of letters were brought to the personal knowledge of Mr. Davis.

I can testify to one case which happened in my own regiment, where it was not only refused, but the party who made the request was placed under arrest, and ordered to be tried by court-martial. A gallant young lawyer from Memphis, Tennessee, who was Captain of Co. —, 9th Tennessee Regiment, Morgan's Brigade, smarting under the sense of recent injuries, wrote to Mr. Davis, to request permission to go to Washington and assassinate Mr. Lincoln and his Cabinet, blow up the Capitol, &c. Mr. Davis endorsed on the back of the letter: "Atrocious. Respectfully referred to the Secretary of War, who will order the arrest and trial by court-martial of the writer. J. D."

This letter, with this endorsement, was returned to General Morgan, while his brigade was at Black's Shop, near Murfreesboro', by Mr. Randolph, then Secretary of War. Captain —— was arrested, and was so mortified at his arrest that he shouldered a musket, and, marching headlong into the first battle, was killed at Milton, Tenn.

These facts can be established by Gen. Basil Duke, Col. N. C. P. Breckinridge, Major Wm. P. Elliott, Commissary of Brigade, Major David H. Llewellyn, Q. M., and Col. R. A. Alston, then Captain and A. A. G."

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDER, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, MASS., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read this following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my [illegible] has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have ovef 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

BUCKEYE SULKY PLOW.

Being impressed with the necessity, and importance of economy in farming, I am happy to have it in my power to furnish to farmers at manufacturers prices the BUCKEYE COTTON & CORN CULTIVATOR OR SULKEY PLOW.

It is certainly the greatest improvement of the age in agricultural implements.

It will, with two horses and one hand, cultivate as much land, and do it as well, as four horses and four hands in the usual way; and the plower can either walk or ride at pleasure; which enables old or decripped men, who cannot follow the common plow to execute the work as well as the most robust.

It is manufactured by R. Sinclair & Co., Baltimore, at $70, and is the cheapest plow in use, because of the great saving in hands, teams and provisions. For further information upon the subject, address,

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st day of October next, under the direction of Gen R E COLSTON, a graduate, and for five years (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the VA. Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public, that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars apply to GEN R. E. COLSTON.
